

National Association of Geoscience Teachers

Dorothy LaLonde Stout Professional Development Grant for Community College Faculty and Students

In honor of Dottie Stout's outstanding work and lifelong dedication to Earth Science Education.

Award of $750 may be used towards

- Participation in earth science classes or workshops
- Attendance at professional or science education meetings
- Participation in earth science field trips
- Purchase of earth science materials for classroom use

Eligibility: Community College teachers who teach one or more courses in Earth science
Community College students actively pursuing a career in the Earth sciences

Application:

- Submit a 1-2 page proposal on how the award will be used to support and enhance your classroom teaching of earth science
- Include your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address
- Send materials to:

Dottie Stout Professional Development Grants
National Association of Geoscience Teachers
P.O. Box 5443
Bellingham, WA 98227-5443

National Association of
Geoscience Teachers

Fostering the Improvement in the Teaching of Earth Science since 1938